A Charis Interfaith Book Circle

This open book group seeks to deepen the dialogue between different understandings of and commitments to living a life in which faith and feminism intersect and inform our work for justice and wholeness. How do your faith and your feminism inform each other? How can we be enriched by one another's faith experiences? What books have shaped and/or transformed your faith journey? Want to talk about it? This series will be facilitated by group participants of many faiths who are committed to increasing understanding and mutual enrichment through dialogue. Join us at Charis on the 1st Monday of each month. For more information, contact linda@chariscircle.org.
